

Central Committee of the Communist Party of Ethiopia

Directive No. 03

Date: 2024-11-03

Subject: Form the Rules and Guidelines of the Party

To: Central Committee

Comrades,

Today, I am pleased to announce that we have taken a significant step forward in solidifying the structure and functionality of our Party by initiating the formation of comprehensive Rules and Guidelines. These foundational documents are essential for ensuring that every member understands the principles and expectations that will guide our collective efforts.

The Office will spearhead the writing of these documents, which will serve as a framework for the swift and effective functioning of our Party during this critical transitional phase. While our Constitution remains in the process of ratification, it is imperative that we establish a temporary yet robust set of guidelines that will govern our operations.

This proposed document will be presented to the Central Committee for thorough review and a full vote on the resolution. It is designed to be an inclusive and transparent process, allowing for input from all levels of the Party to ensure that our collective voice is heard and represented.

The Rules and Guidelines will cover a range of important topics, including the responsibilities and rights of every party member, the procedures for decision-making, and the roles and functions of various bodies within the Party. By clearly outlining these elements, we aim to foster a sense of unity and purpose among our members, as well as to instill confidence in our leadership.

This initiative is a temporary yet vital measure to secure our stability and maintain effective leadership as we navigate the complexities of our formation. By establishing these guidelines, we are not only preparing ourselves for future challenges but also laying the groundwork for a strong, cohesive, and democratic Party that reflects our shared values and aspirations. Together, we will build a solid foundation for our journey ahead.
